

Join us at the WFIMC Lounge

Thursday, 4 March 11:00 New York/ 17:00 Geneva

Welcome back to the WFIMC Lounge! The first issue of 2021 will give us a spectrum on how Covid has changed our working environment and what developments we can expect during the second year of the pandemic and thereafter.

Addressing the Challenges of an Evolving New Normal.

Our world won't be the same when this pandemic is over— many changes we thought to be temporary might be here to stay. From quarantine and rapid testing, from audience restrictions to social distancing on stage, from short-term planning to date collisions, the list goes on, the problems multiply. Listen to a distinguished panel of artists, agents and managers presenting their views on our future.

FAQs

Who can visit WFIMC Lounge?

Only members, associate members as well as their staff and guests can take part.

We always focus on certain areas of the world. Timings are set to accommodate as many people as possible, but for some locations they may be very inconvenient. However, it will be possible to watch recordings of each session later.

How can I join?

Please register in order to join. A zoom link will be sent to you before the session.
